WE RETURN: RESTORYING THE HEROINE'S JOURNEY at Rolling Ridge

June 3-5, 2022

*"Bone by bone, hair by hair, Wild Woman comes back...
She comes back through story."*

Clarissa Pinkola Estes

After years of being apart, we invite women to come together once again on sacred land to recollect ourselves in this threshold time between what has been and what may yet unfold.

Join Lindsay McLaughlin, Julie Gabrielli, Lisa Bardack, and Katy Gaughan for a weekend's immersion following the Heroine's Journey deep into the heart of the Sacred Feminine and the animate Earth.

Participate in guided circles of story and ceremony, dance, drumming, and council. Go for wanders in the forest looking for what is in danger of being lost (our scattered bones), and listening for guidance for ourselves and for our community: the wisdom whispered by stream and oak, stone and hawk, squirrel, fox, turtle--all the wild inhabitants of the thousand special acres called Rolling Ridge.

Lindsay, Julie, Lisa, and Katy bring years of dedicated learning, practice, mentoring, and leadership in retreats, dance, and drumming. We share a fascination with the power of story to heal, reconnect, and recreate our world.

$375 - includes lodging, six meals, and program. Two women registering together and choosing to share a room may pay a reduced fee of $325 each. Camping further reduces the fee to $300.

Must show proof of full vaccination and negative COVID test before arrival.
